gin training for his fight with Munroe. Jeffries says he expects to defeat the Butte miner, but he will take no chances whatever, and will be in as good shape as possible when the bell rings for festivities to begin.

According to the articles of agreement decided on and signed for Jeffries by Billy Delaney and for Munroe by Harry Pollock, the big fellows will fight twenty rounds before the Yosemite Athletic club of San Francisco in the latter part of May for a $25,000 purse, which will be divided on the basis of 65 per cent to the winner and basis of 65 per cent to the winner and 35 per cent to the loser, and each fighter and the club will post a $5,000 for-

Two thousand five hundred dollars is Two thousand five hundred dollars is to be posted at once with Jim Kennedy, who represented the Yosemite Athletic club in the negotiations, and the remaining $2,500 is to be posted a month before the date of the battle, Harry Corbett being the final stakeholder.

Eddie Graney was selected as referee.
The match was arranged in record

The match was arranged in record time. True to the promise of Jeffries to give the winner of the Munroe-Sharkey bout a battle for the title, Delaney appeared at the meeting place a little before 3 o'clock Monday after-noon prepared to clinch the matter. Harry Pollock, Munroe's manager, and Jim Kennedy arrived a few minutes later. No time was lest in getting

"Yes, we want new champions, but where are they to come from?" down to business.

In less than fifteen minutes the two managers had agreed that Jeffries and Munroe should meet in a twenty-round championship battle in San Francisco in the latter part of May; that straight Marquis of Queensbury rules should prevail and the fighters should be permitted to wear soft, surgical bandages, subject to the inspection of the referee.

"Jeffries never wears bandages," De-laney remarked, "but if Munroe wishes to use them we have no objection."

Eureka Ready to Join Hands With Others.

(Special to The Herald.)
Eureka, March 6.—Eureka is going to have a good baseball team this year, and is anxious to hear from some nearby places, Park City and Bingham pre-ferred, as to the outlook for a league. Two more players, Taylor and Fuller, elected and the financing of the team concluded. Eureka is a good ball town and any neighboring teams that come here will be assured of good receipts, providing they can play ball. There is room in the proposed league for a good amateur team from some of the resorts-Calder's park or Lagoon.

NEW YORK TO PROMOTE AUTOMOBILE RACES

New York, March 6.-Automobile rac ing more frequent and on a grander scale than ever before is the programme mapped out for the Empire City track this season. Great matches to determine the real track champion of America are to be promoted, and, the champion once determined, the best drivers of the European road contests are to be brought over and matched against him. The track will not be given over, after all, exclusively to trotting this season, as was feared. The acceptance of the secretaryship by Alfred Reeves, an automobile racing en thusiast, who promoted last year's record-breaking meets at this track, as "Barney Oldfield, Fournier and other great racers," asserted Mr. Reeves to-day, "say this track is the fastest in the world for auto racing, and we propose to put it up to them to prove it We will, however, stand for no hippo drome racing. A time limit will be set, and it will be pretty close to the world's record. To get any share of the money the racers will have to come

The New York fight fan who has not seen a real ring battle for several years now has broken loose with the following howl:

"Oh, for a real champion!

"New ones are badly wanted—nay, yearned for, by devotees of the boxing game.

"There is not a class, from James J. Jeffries down, which has a perfectly satisfactory champion—a man whom the public can admire and cheer, as it did John L. Sullivan, Jack Dempsey and Jack McAuliffe.

"Red Robert Fitzsimmons came nearer to the popular ideal than ahy of the existing heads of classes, but he lacked the personal magnetism that made Sullivan an idolized and petted favorite.

"Huge Jeffries has never been beloved of the people. The heavyweight monarch is a decent sort of chap, takes good care of his folks, fights fairly and all that, but is wanting in an indefinable something.

the difficulty was speedly smoothed out.

Munroe's manager first asked that the purse be cut, and when Delaney positively refused to listen to such a proposal, except in case of a draw, Munroe stood out for a 60 and 40 percent division. Delaney would not consent to this, proposing a 75 and 25 percent division. After some little discussion he said;

"Til tell you what Jeffries will do. He'll split the money 65 and 35 per cent, dividing it evenly in case of a draw."

To this Munroe, through his manager, agreed, and the only serious obstacle to a match was thus removed. Both principals agreed to engage in no fights previous to the date of the big mill.

Well, a couple of years ago, when Bob was in town, he came up to me on Clark street, and, in that playful way he has hit me a wallop that pushed my backbone through my chest. Then, before I could get my senses together, he vanished. The next day, at the racetrack, I saw him loafing around, and, siding gently up to him, I smote him a mighty belt upon the jaw. Then I ran for my life, An hour later, I was over near the fence, when a shadow towered over me and I found shadow towered over me, and I found that Fitzsimmons had captured me.
